Services & Packages

Throughout your wedding day Helen will work in a obtrusive way, capturing the magical moments as they happen. She will make group shots painless and fun for your guests. Taking inspiration from her passion for fashion, she will create stylish portraits of the bride and groom, the result- a story you will cherish for a life time.

Introduction

As a bride to be I know how confusing it is making important choices for the most biggest day of your life! So many wedding fayres and so many suppliers-where do you start? One thing I do understand is that I want every element of my wedding photographed so every time I open I open my album I will relive the magic of the day again and again!

Because a photographer only photographs one wedding a day it is best to choose your photographer after booking your venue. Please start by taking time to browse the galleries on this site. If you like what you see please do not hesitate to get in touch for a personal consultation and please feel free to ask any questions you need to! I will gladly be of service.

A Pre-Wedding Portrait Session

The session can be taken in the studio or at a location that is special to you. This also includes a complimentary 7x5" portrait.

When you book your wedding photography with Helen you also receive a free Portrait session for you and your fiancé. It's the perfect opportunity to spend some nice quality time together away from all the last minute preparations and to capture some beautiful romantic shots at such a special time. It is also good for us to get to know each other better and to help you relax in front of the camera on your big day.

A Cherish The Dress Fashion Shoot

A fantastic excuse to wear your dress again!

Come to our studio for a champagne reception, You will have your hair and make-up created by a professional make-up. Helen will then create some cool fashion inspired shots in the derelict back lanes around her studio or we can even visit a location such as the beach for the ultimate wow factor!

(Hair, Make-up and location sessions may require a small fee)

Please enjoy spending time viewing our gallery to see examples of our work.
